"Diorasis" is the Hellenic word for farsightedness, which derived from the words Dia (Διά; meaning through) and Orasis (Όρασις; meaning view/vision) defined as the acute intuitive insight or perceptiveness or simply put, seeing differently, seeing ahead. Hence, we believe that in business, gut feeling, common sense and personal touch are equally important as numbers.

"Ladies and gents, Former colleagues, clients and acquaintances,

I am delighted this afternoon (GMT), to launch my new business, Diorasis Capital Limited, based in London, U.K.

Diorasis Capital is the result of my approximately, 20 years of experience in Strategic Negotiations, under roles in Sales and Business Development, in industries that include, Banking & Finance, Telecoms, Politics, Media & Entertainment, Tourism, and Sports.

I was truly blessed and honoured to have worked with decision makers that helped me cultivate my strategy-oriented thinking and attitude, while at the same time, making me identifying the best timing for rolling those sleeves up and "get the job done".
